Fish oil supplementation from 9 to 18 months of age affects the insulin-like growth factor axis in a sex-specific manner in Danish infants. Damsgaard, C. T., Harsløf, L. B. S., Andersen, A. D., Helgren, L., Michaelsen, K. F., & Lauritzen, L. (2016). Fish oil supplementation from 9 to 18 months of age affects the insulin-like growth factor axis in a sex-specific manner in Danish infants. British Journal of Nutrition, 115(5), 782-790. DOI: 10.1017/s0007114515004973