Targeting of conserved gag-epitopes in early HIV infection is associated with lower plasma viral load and slower CD4\(^+\) T cell depletion. - DTU Orbit (28/12/2018)