The electronic-structure origin of the anisotropic thermopower of nanolaminated Ti$_3$SiC$_2$ determined by polarized x-ray spectroscopy and Seebeck measurements - DTU Orbit (22/12/2018)
anisotropic thermopower of nanolaminated Ti$_3$SiC$_2$ determined by polarized x-ray spectroscopy and Seebeck measurements. In Proceedings - 37th International Conference and Expo on Advanced Ceramics and Composites (ICACC 2013) American Ceramic Society.
