A multi-objective energy planning including system exergy efficiency and socio-economic costs.