Applying boundary objects to create coherence between management decisions regarding prevention of Musculoskeletal Disorders and implemented changes - DTU Orbit

Applying boundary objects to create coherence between management decisions regarding prevention of Musculoskeletal Disorders and implemented changes

Research output: Contribution to conference › Conference abstract for conference – Annual report year: 2017 › Research › peer-review