Creativity, Invention, Innovation and Entrepreneurship, connected in theory separated in practice: - Can we strengthen engineering education by understanding the overlaps and the differences between the four concepts in an educational context - DTU Orbit (29/09/2019)

Creativity, Invention, Innovation and Entrepreneurship, connected in theory separated in practice: - Can we strengthen engineering education by understanding the overlaps and the differences between the four concepts in an educational context